The 1982 Homecoming Dance was a night for everyone to remember. The gym was filled with corn stalks, hay, and leaves which highlighted the theme "Indian Summer". The entertainment was provided by the band "Future," which was enjoyed by everyone. At 10:45 p.m. the court marched in to the theme song "Love Me Tomorrow" by "Chicago", followed by the crowning of King Eric Burling and Queen Cheryl Zickuhr. At midnight the evening came to an end and everyone left with happy memories.

Band Revue "82," the 34th annual production, took place in December in North's auditorium. The musical variety show presented by our school's band members consisted of music, dance, and comical skits. Written and directed by Mr. Donald Huenefeld, the show consisted of four major acts. The opening act was narrated by Matt Payne, posed as Uncle Sam. Following were assorted musical selections from the past. Act Two, entitled "To You Aloha," featured Peter Pokrandt and the life story of the Hawaiian by he played. Third was "Musical Moods," an act consisting of many vocal and instrumental presentations. Last was "The Christmas Tree Lot," a skit about a tree owner, Eric Napierala, and the destiny of his trees.

Catch Our Act

The 1982 school play "Arsenic and Old Lace" was a big success thanks to the cast of 10 boys, 4 girls; the director, Mr. David Schnell; Roger Bochek; and the stage crew. Instead of the usual eight week rehearsal schedule, because "Guys and Dolls" ran so long, the play had to be pulled together in four weeks. But they did it!

"Arsenic and Old Lace" is a comedy about two old ladies who poison old men because they feel sorry for them and then bury them in the cellar. Teddy Brewster (who thinks he's Teddy Roosevelt), pretends these bodies are yellow fever victims. This little operation goes along fine until the nephew, Mortimer, finds out what's going on. To complicate things, another nephew, Jonathon (who is criminally insane and has also killed 12 men) shows up with his partner, Dr. Herman Einstein. Things get worse as a policeman shows up and spends the whole night explaining the play he's writing. This all takes place in the 1940's.

There were four Falls North participants in this year's Junior Miss Pageant. The four girls were Kathy Pyatt, Anne Artenson, Lisa Setzke, and 1982's Junior Miss, Amy Schlumpf. The girls were scored individually in the following catagories; scholastic achievement, personality, youth fitness, creative performing arts, poise and appearance.

Chosen as Junior Miss was Amy Schlumpf. Amy is active in cheerleading, student council and chorus. She is in the top ten percent of her class and went to Badger Girls' State. She plans to continue her education at either Notre Dame University or St. Norbert's College.

The Spirit of Junior Miss award is voted by all the girls for the person they think best exemplifies the ideals of Junior Miss. This year that award went to Anne Artenson, another student from Menomonee Falls North, Falls North congratulates all the participants on their efforts and performances.

INDIAN Spirit

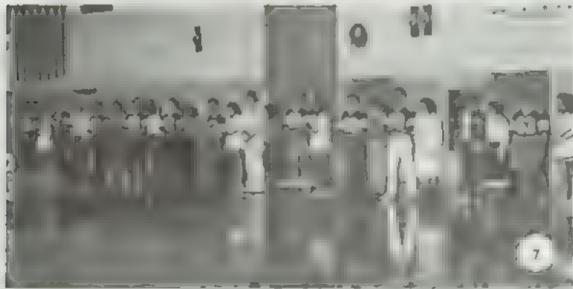

School spirit was extremely good this year. Dynamic fans helped the cheerleaders greatly during all of the seasons and pep assemblies. The participation for Spirit Week and Homecoming was better than in most years. At all the games it was evident that Indian Spirit was everywhere!

Our Indian soccer team had a very exciting season with many games decided in overtime. Highlights of the year included two victories over Falls East. The team showed vast improvement over last year but lacked the needed experience when crucial situations arose. Captains for the team were senior George Pavlovic and junior George Geibl, Senior Joe Schneider was voted Most Improved and Geibl was Most Valuable. Geibl, Pavlovic, and sophomore Mike Kommer were all named Honorable Mention All-Braveland.

"Whoever said life was gonna be easy?"

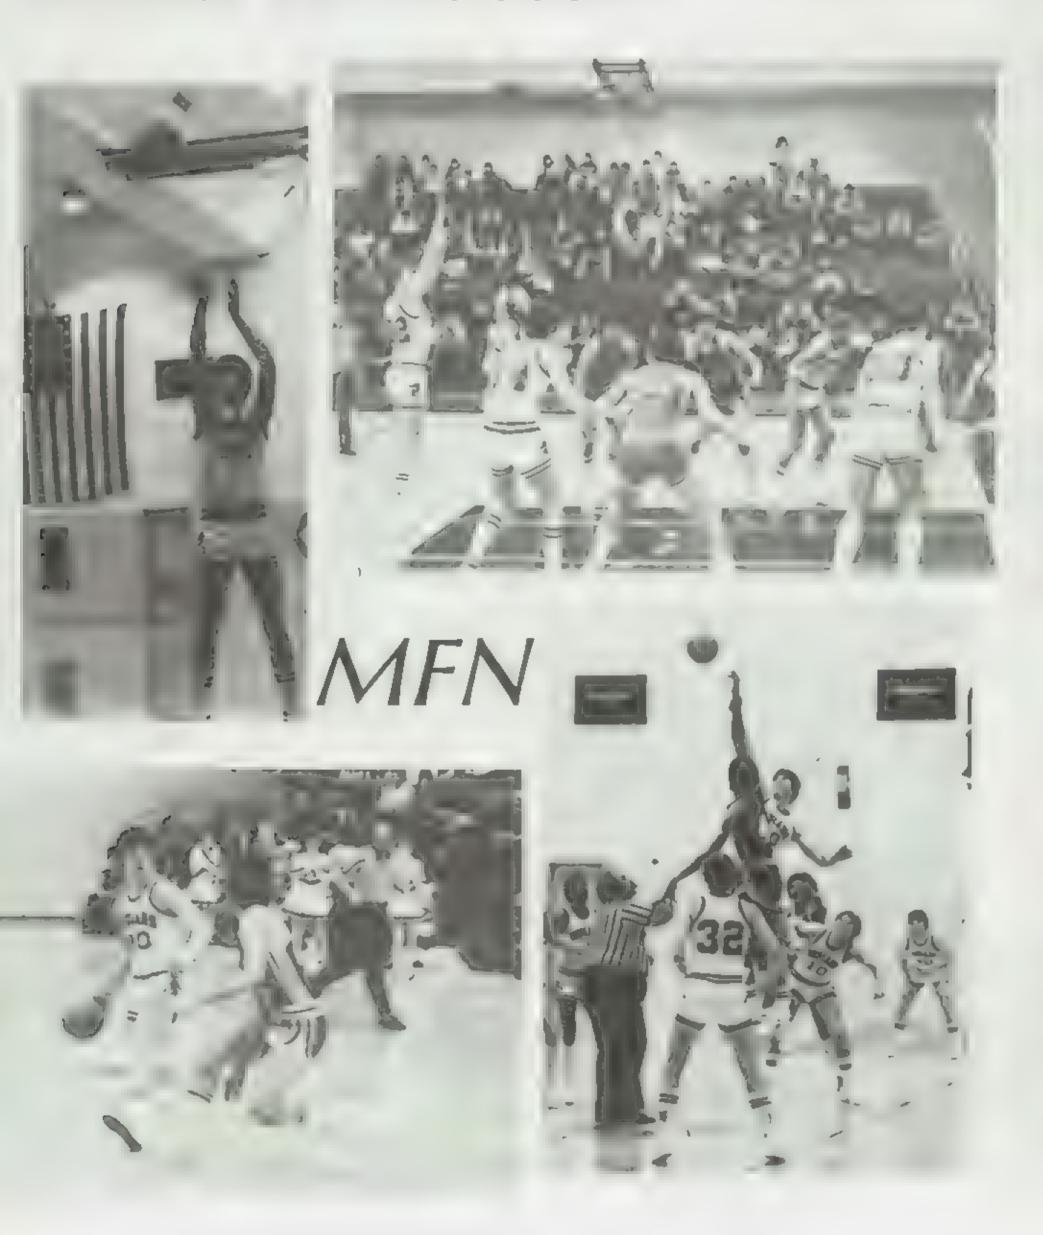

The Indians again competed in the tough Braveland Conference. In recent years, conference champions have reached the state tournament.

Our team lacked size and quickness this year, but our determination and desire kept us in most games. The squad was very inexperienced, and underclassmen had to fill a few key positions.

The team captain was Dave Weber who had, for the most part, an outstanding season. Dave was the most consistent player on the team.

Shoots For Success

J.V.

The Junior Varsity team had an outstanding season under Coach Plahmer. The team had good size and quickness. There were also some very good shooters. Several members will help the varsity program next year.

Several major injuries to key personnel along with a general lack of size were prob-lems that the 1982-1983 frosh Indians had to overcome. They performed well under these handicaps, winning some very close and exciting games. They learned a great deal about the game of basketball under Coach Lewiston, and the prospects look good for this group of players.

In 1982 another powerful boys track team did their best. The Indian team never gave up. They kept trying and because of that determination they succeeded in another fine season. Two school records were set: Pat Dees set the record for the long jump-21 feet ¾ inch; Craig Eischen's pole vault topped the record-12 feet 6 inches. State qualifiers this year were Kurt Jensen who ran the 3200 meter run; Chris Filo, Pat Dees, Eric Burling, and Mark Linser ran as the 1600 meter relay team.

The 1982 boys' tennis team had a better than average season, sending three top aces to sectionals. Steve Smith was cited as most valuable player with an impressive 14-4 record. At #2 singles John Kossoris ended the year 13-5. Team captain Dave Hartzell, the only senior on the team, made a great showing in his final season at North. He did well playing both singles (4-1), and doubles (6-5). As a whole the dual match record was 5-7, but the 55-55 individual match record should not be overlooked.

With the greatest finish to an already very successful cross country season, the Boys' Cross Country team upset #1 ranked Stevens Point to win the WIAA Class A Boys' State Meet by one point, 59-60. Kurt Jensen (captain) led the team by placing 13th but was followed very closely by Bill Hacker-15th, Keith Brooks-18th, and Mark Linser-19th. These four boys were only eight seconds apart. Mark Bronner completed the victory by finishing 24 seconds later in 39th place.

With this great accomplishment, we tend to overlook the fact that the boys also won the Braveland Conference meet for the 12th time in 14 years.

The JV team was also very successful as they finished in the top three in every meet and also won the JV conference invitational. Tim Wegner led the team with a 2nd place finish at the conference.

With strong teamwork the 1982 girls' softball team ended its season with a 6-9 record. This year's cocaptains were Patri Held and Lina Lawrence. Pitcher Sandy Rosploch and catcher Terry Hilbert were named this year's Most Valuable Players, Rospinch's pitching earned her a 2nd team All-Conference position and Hilbert received an All-Conference honorable mention. A record was established with most strike outs in a season for a pitcher by Rosploch-182 onsistent hitting gave Sandy Fellenz a ti 438 batting average. Cheri Kronschnabl and Patti Held showed outstanding effort. Coach Homer Leight stated that the team had problems early in the season but by working together well nearly earned a regional championship.

The Girls' Gymnastics team improved a great deal continued to show it through the duration of the season. The team was young but showed a lot of maturity. They also indicated plenty of promise for the future. Who knows, we could have a future Olympic star right here in our gym! Hang in there, and good luck in the years to come!

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team was led by three experienced seniors: Cindy Houdek, Sandy Rosploch and Sue Schneiders. Other starters on the team were junior Terry Hilbert and sophomore Kerri Christianson. Both Rosploch and Schneiders were All-Conference candidates. Rosploch contributed successfully to the team, being the leading scorer. Schneiders also did a great job leading the team with rebounding. Coach Fullerton enjoyed the opportunity to coach the hard working, disciplined team.

The girls' swim team this year was a success, considering that they have had 3 different coaches in the last 3 years. The girls worked hard and achieved better times at the end of the season. At Conference swimmer Andrea Schlie broke her own school record in the 500 free style at 5.41. Achieving a great number of points in this year's season were the divers. Again Michelle Jerome and Janet Vandernack made it to the state finals held in Madison. Janet had an outstanding year. She once again is an all American diver and placed 3rd in State. Michelle Jerome placed 8th in State. Congratulations girls on a terrific season!!

However, the girls did adjust well, worked extremely hard and ran some remarkably fine races. The highlight of the season was a sixth-place finish in the conference — the highest North had ever finished. Congratulations for a great season!

Indian Captains of the 1982 girls' track team were Terri Hill and Janelle Burling. Most Valuable awards were given to Janelle Burling for track events and to Nina Genthe in field events. Most improved runner was Jane Blamer.

An excellent start for the girls came at the Indoor Conference meet where they took 5th place by scoring 29 points.

first high point of the outdoor season arrived at Greendale. The Quadrangular opponents were Greendale, Cudahy, and New Berlin West. Both junior varsity and varsity track teams earned first place finishes.

Setting a school record the following weekend at the Cedarburg Invitational was Nina Genthe throwing the discus 121'5".

The season was capped by qualifying Nina Genthe and Janelle Burling for the state track meet in Madison. At state Nina finished 8th in the discus, and Janelle Burling made the finals in the 100M hurdles, setting a new school record at 15.01 seconds.

The North girls' tennis season was both fun and frustrating. Youth and inexperience were the two major obstacles which the team had to overcome. As the team had only one senior, we came up a little short in the area of competitive experience. Our dual record was 2 wins and 8 losses. We also participated in 4 multi-team events where we gained some valuable experience. Our leading players were Lynn Lubiejewski, Kelly Carl, Jill Sumter and Patty Gerrits. Patty was our honorary captain and Most Valuable Player.

The 1982-83 squad attended the UW-Whitewater camp session held over the summer. They received a third place overall, first place in riple competition, fifth in originality, earned the highest points their last day, and the senior members received second place for their kickline. At a clinic held in December, the girls once again put forth great effort and received a first place trophy in speed-learning and a fifth place trophy in originality.

Dolphinettes Swim Through Time ...

With great enthusiasm, the Dolphinette club of 1981-1982 presented its annual show behind the theme "Somewhere in Time." The show traveled from "Yesterday" to the "50's," to the future. The Dolphinettes look forward to the show with excitement and always have fun presenting it. Putting on a show as well as this club did took a lot of hard work and cooperation. The members of the Dolphinette club developed endurance, responsibility, and confidence throughout the season.

The 1982-1983 Dolphinettes aren't the same water ballet club that they've been known to be. This year the team has undergone changes making the club more challenging. Probably the most exciting change has been that the members are now competing in synchronized swim meets. The girls have brought home dozens of ribbons including many won right here at North. The group hosted its own state-wide figure meet which was very rewarding. Now that synchronized swimming is part of Olympics, the challenge is greater.

This year has been an active and enjoyable one for the North High Orchestra. Orchestra's fine musicians performed for the listening pleasure of its audiences at the mid-winter and spring concerts. For Homecoming, orchestra students found joy in building a float that was singled out for its craftsmanship and popularity. Between major concert events, the members entered a variety of other activities such as music festival participation and performing for school and community groups. North's orchestra was also pleased that it had members in the prestigious Music for Youth Orchestra Program that concertizes regularly at the PAC. The orchestra year closed with a recreational climax as members greared for a weekend visit to Marriott's Great America.

The two choirs of previous years have been combined into one large choir this year. It is called the Concert Choir and has many enthusiastic singers. The yearly activities include the Christmas concert, performances at Northridge and the Falls Nursing Home. In March many of the choir members were involved in the district solo and ensemble contests. The choir has shown some growth this year and hopefully will continue with that growth along with new excitement and enthusiasm.

Chieftain Gets The Scoop

The Chieftain once again continued to put out an issue approximately every five weeks. The staff was quite small this year so the members had to work twice as hard to make the paper complete. The staff was young this year, so Junior editors Virginia Harrison and Scott Kellogg gave aid to these inexperienced members. They also laid out the paper and with aid from the staff and their advisor, Ms. White, thought of headlines for various stories. The Chieftain kept everyone up to date on current happenings at North and is always fun to read.

Each day of debate consists of six rounds per team. Placing, or winning, depends on the records of opposing teams which are defeated. There are at least 30 teams at each tournament.

It's A Small World For AFS

The AFS Club, American Field Service, works with the community AFS chapter and assists foreign exchange students in understanding and enjoying student life. This year the club officers were David Braun, president; Vicki Sturm, vice president; Kim Braun, treasurer and Mary Aidich, secretary The club advisor was Mrs. Foye. AFS club also helped our three exchange students, Rossana, Per and Lennart, through the ways of a strange school and their new kind of life.

I would like to come back here again. Thanks to everyone for everything they did to make me happy here Rossana Etzel Barrios Entrega General David Chiriqui Republica de Panama

For some reason AFS didn't get me here until the 25th of August, which I felt was too late. School started the day after, so I never really got a chance to look around and learn to know the neighborhood. During the fall season I played football, and that was a great experience. Even if I wouldn't have played football, I couldn't have missed it because football is what everything revolves around in the house where I reside. I would really like to thank the school for accepting me as a foreign exchange student and for all that they have done for me. I also extend my appreciation to the community for welcoming me. Thanks for a great year! Per Tenga

Putting together the Periscope takes hard work and a lot of dedication. It's a job that starts the first day of shoool and continues throughout the year. Every event that takes place must be covered by the staff in a style which makes the book better than the one put out the previous year. In order to distribute the book in time, four deadlines must be met. The first is in November and the last in February. This means that the whole book must be completed by the end of February. As soon as the book has been completed, the staff begins work on the next year's book. Each summer the editors attend a camp where they pick up new ideas for the yearbooks.

The staff spends one class period a day preparing the book. Aside from the onefourth credit they receive, they get the reward of a job well done when the books are distributed in spring.

Skada's purpose is to promote skiing as an enjoyable and beneficial winter sport. It meets at North or East to be taught waxing, observe technique demonstrations, and see films. Skada ventured on numerous weeknight and weekend trips to area ski hills and trails for downhill and cross country skiing and lessons. Special events were weekend trips to upper Michigan ski areas, Powderhorn and Blackjack. An annual new and used ski sale was held in January.

A.V. Helpers

A.V.Helpers

Have you ever wondered who it is that sends you those exciting filmstrips? The A.V. department, headed by Mrs. Lutzke, orders and delivers the films. The A.V. helpers deliver and collect the projecters and filmstrips during their study halls. So the next time you see a film, thank an A.V helperl

Guidance Helpers

Who is it that gives you a pass and gets you a break from class? Well, you can thank the guidance helpers. They do little odds and ends for the guidance department. This includes sending passes and running messages for Mrs. Gehring when she needs them

Office Helpers

Office Helpers

Did you ever wonder who that 'kid" was who stamped your tardy slip? Well, it was probably an Office Helper. They help out the office secretaries and aid in the office running smoothly. A few of the things they do include delivering detention slips, collecting attendance, answering phones, and any other jobs that have to be done. I'm sure you've seen them around. Hopefully, they're your friends!

Senior Composition

As graduation approaches, the class of '83 remembers most of the highlights of its four years at North. Freshman year is too trivial to elaborate upon — finding your way around the maze of halls that "first day"; participating in athletics and other extra-curricular activities; our favorite hangout Sammy's, and the adventures of Mrs. Kaza's Spanish 1-2 class. We are also anxious to see if Dr. Manz's final words to us will at all resemble his first ones. Who could ever forget month into our freshman year, our class of "dirtballs" was assembled in the auditorium to be reprimanded for "irking the merchants" of downtown Menomonee Falls.

Most of us were ready to get behind the wheel as we entered Driver's Ed. sophomore year. After passing our temps test, turning 16, and hours of practicing the dreaded parallel parking, we were ready. Much to our relief, we passed and were able to experience new places of interest on the weekends: Spasland, Lakefront, Witch's house, Mary Buth's, and, of course, the drive-in. Junior year gave us the opportunity to take more elective classes, but one required course drove fear into everyone's heart - U.S. History! After spending long hours at Jenny Timmer's house, Fritz's truck (complete with purple paint job) was ready to pull the winning float through the Homecoming parade. Our Junior class found Spirit Week not only fun but also profitable. The prize money from the first place win was added to funds for prom. On May 8th, 1982, a surprising 47 couples gathered in the gym to dance to the music of Focal Point and to the theme song, "Your Own Special Way". Reigning over the court were Queen Sue Zielinski and King Rick Marohl, hosts for the pre-prom party. Other festivities surrounding prom included: Post Prom Dinner (?) at Scenic View for those of us who made it, Steve; breakfast at class president Kathy Pyeatt's house and a picnic the following day at Covered Bridge Park. Junior year also brought the crowning of our Junior Miss, Amy Schlumpf; a new spring/summer pastime — tailgating; yet another meeting place, the Lot; and a new friend, Jonas. We seem to be Sweden's favorite, adding Lennart and Per our Senior year.

Finally, we were upper classmen and invaded the Senior Lounge. During Christmas vacation Mr. Woosencraft and some members of our class volunteered their time to give the lounge a coat of paint to cover up a few spots. Along with the freedom of seniority came the harsh reality of Newsweek and terms tests. History was never boring, however. Students were kept amused by the ram, the buffalo, the gun, etc. Our class definitely demonstrated a lot of school spirit. A few students got a bit carried away in the decorating at Schumann stadium one night, but they paid their dues and all is forgotten. Replacing Winter Carnival this year was a Christmas dance which featured the famous Flip, Flop and Fly! Placing first in the air band contest, this group was led by Dan Shanley and Tim Morgan (alias Jake and Elwood of Blues Brothers fame.) Also this year, Milwaukee became the topic of national news, as we campaigned with QFM to bring the Who to town and participated in the fun and excitement of the Brewer's World Series battle. During our Senior year the guys began to appreciate the latest fashion trends; cowboy boots are "in". They began dressing "nicer" and, in lact, one time some student wore a three-piece suit to school for no apparent reason. Also, a trend was the familiar tin in the back pocket. And in hairstyles, it is important to note that Tommy's hair was longer than most of the girls' this year.

As a whole our class set and reached many goals. Led by Coach Rymer the cross country team won the state championship, beating Stevens Point by a mere point. In addition, many members of our class were a part of the first conference championship football team in the history of North our junior year. Coming back strong our senior year, we did it again, utilizing good sportsmanship and displaying pride. The Varsity cheerleading squad, after becoming Grand Champs at summer camp, placed tenth in a national competition involving 150 other grand champion schools across the country. The accomplishments of all the organizations of our class would be too numerous to mention, but we can be proud that we were a class of "doers". Although we functioned well as a group, our class was well peppered with unique individuals owning a colorful array of nicknames: Punk, Gibby, Otzy, Cootie, Burls, Little Herm, Big B, Roz, Schubes, Potsie, Pochy, "Z", Weasel, Smitty, Duck, Mutz, Ricky, Rick the Rabbit, the Skoal Bandit and one very Crispy Guy whom it is understood has a fondness for tombstones.

As you read this, your thoughts probably turn to graduation, the end. But this is not the end, only a new beginning. Spend this last summer together with good friends having fun before we part and go our separate ways next fall. So gather moments while you may, collect the dreams we dream today. Remember you will remember the times of your life

Getting a Job
I remember getting my first steady job. A lot of my friends also worked; most at restaurants, some in grocery stores, others at the YMCA. I usually deposited my hard earned in the bank to buy the latest fashions or to take a special friend to the movies but however hard I worked it seemed I was always BROKE!

Me and U.S. History Class

Well, we finally made it to be upperclassmen and then one more battle to overcome - U.S. History class!! Remember all those times we stayed up until midnight outlining and answering questions for Mr. Koltermann or Mr. Tyson's class? And we can't forget the famous "multiple quess" scan-tron unit tests that we studied hours for and still failed. Boy, will I miss those great quizzes where I studied, nerve-rackingly, that list of terms to discover that only a couple of them would show up and the rest of people or things I had never heard of - who reads the book any-

I waited so anxiously for Sophomore English, especially the speeches, BaHa!! Finally the day came when demonstration speeches were due. I frantically went over my notecards trying to remember each word. As I walked up to the podium I felt my knees shaking; I must have turned beet red. Throughout the speech I said a thousand "ums" and was constantly tonguetied. I finished my speech with a great sigh of relief. After all the worry it wasn't as bad as I thought, but "IMPROMPTUS" were next!!

Me and Drivers Ed

On the first day of Drivers Ed, I thought I knew all the answers and the class would come easily. Mr. Gradinjan started out with numerous forms to be filled out, then moved to a film of course. Boy, did I see the films; films on accidents, films on seat belts, films on accidents, films on right of way, and more films on accidents! At last I could take my temps, test. Man, was I nervous. I guess all those films paid off, I passed. The next step to my license was driving behind the wheel. "What an experience!", not only for me but also for my instructor. Finally the big day came. I could go for my license. Boy, I was so scared I thought I was going to die! The long awaited news was positive, and all I could say was, "Another rookie driver hits the road!"

Me And Algebra

I thought high school was going to be hard but this is ridiculous! I remember Polynomials; I couldn't even spell it much less know what to do with it. And I remember doing weekly notebooks for my Algebra teacher or studying all hours of the night for those hour and a half semester exams. This isn't the only class I have to put up with - there's Health, Drafting, and Metals. Who knows what I'm in for next year?!

My Freshman Year Well, I made it through my toughest year, I'll ever have, Freshman year. On the first day of school I was walking around pale-faced and totally lost. After the first day it got better with looking forward to bubbler rides and wrong directions from upperclassmen. They helped me get used to the school, the hard way. But the best part was meeting new people and making friends. Finally, after a year I feel like a part of North and can't wait to break in next year's Freshmen.
